

Council of Canadian Administrative Tribunals
Conseil des tribunaux administratifs canadiens

PRESENTER BIOS

Nunziata Masi holds an LLB from the University of Manitoba, and was called to the Manitoba Bar in 2006. She has been employed full time as a Deputy Chief Commissioner with the Residential Tenancies Commission of Manitoba for the last four years. She also sits on Manitoba's Mental Health Review Board and is a member of the Law Society of Manitoba's Discipline and Practice and Ethics Committees. She is the president of the Manitoba Council of Administrative Tribunals as well as a member of the Professional Development Committee of the Council of Canadian Administrative Tribunals.

John Burchill holds an JD from the University of Manitoba and was called to the Manitoba Bar in 2011. He received his LLM from Osgoode Hall in 2015. John is currently the Executive Director of the Manitoba Law Reform Commission. He also sits as Acting Chair of the Manitoba Human Rights Commission and is a member of the Manitoba Bar Association's Research Section. He has been an instructor at the University of Manitoba law school for the past 5 years. Prior to joining the Law Reform Commission he worked for the Winnipeg Police Service.

Susana May Yon Lee is a full-time Member at the Canadian International Trade Tribunal. Her mandate at the Tribunal includes adjudicating trade remedy matters (anti-dumping and countervailing duties, and safeguard measures), custom appeals, and government procurement complaints. She is qualified as a lawyer in Ontario, New York State, and Washington, D.C. Prior to her appointment to the Tribunal, Susana practised law as a partner at Cassidy Levy Kent (Canada) LLP. In her legal practice, she was ranked by Chambers Canada and The Legal 500 in international trade. She holds joint Juris Doctor and Master of Business Administration degrees from the University of Ottawa and a Bachelor of Arts and Science from McGill University.

