

Council of Canadian Administrative Tribunals
Conseil des tribunaux administratifs canadiens

Jacqueline Corado Cerna, Director and General Counsel, RCMP Conduct Adjudication Directorate

Jacqueline Corado Cerna is the Director & General Counsel at the Royal Canadian Mounted Police, bringing expertise in legal and regulatory affairs within the public safety sector.

Jacqueline's background reflects a strong focus on legal leadership and regulatory compliance. As Director & General Counsel at the Canadian Judicial Council, Jacqueline enhanced the administration of justice by supporting judicial development and promoting ethical conduct. Jacqueline's work history includes demonstrating applied knowledge of legal frameworks.

Prior to this, Jacqueline served as Vice Chair, Senior Counsel & Team Leader at the Transportation Appeal Tribunal of Canada, providing an independent forum for transportation-related appeals and ensuring fairness in dispute resolution. During her tenure at Rogers, Jacqueline served as Senior Negotiator and Regulatory Advisor, contributing to the company's communications and media operations.

Jacqueline holds a Bachelor of Laws from UQAM| Université du Québec à Montréal and a Law License from École du Barreau