

Council of Canadian Administrative Tribunals
Conseil des tribunaux administratifs canadiens

Thomas Vulpe, Vice-Chairperson, Social Security Tribunal – Income Security Section

Thomas Vulpe has been the vice-chairperson of the Social Security Tribunal's- Income Security Section since June 2019. Thomas helped launch the SST's innovative navigator program for self-represented parties. He continues to advance access to justice for unrepresented parties through initiatives to expand active adjudication in administrative justice.

Prior to joining the Social Security Tribunal, Thomas held key leadership roles at the Immigration and Refugee Board of Canada over 10 years, including leading the Toronto office of the Refugee Protection Division.