

Council of Canadian Administrative Tribunals
Conseil des tribunaux administratifs canadiens

Virginie Massé, Administrative Tribunal of Québec

Virginie Massé has served as coordinating administrative judge with the Social Affairs Division of the Administrative Tribunal of Québec since January 2018. A lawyer by training, she was an administrative judge with the Commission des transports du Québec from 2013 to 2014, then served as the organization's vice president from 2014 to 2017.

From 1998 to 2013, Virginie specialized in transportation law and regularly appeared before administrative tribunals.

Virginie has been a member of CCAT since 2018, playing an active role on the Council's Tribunal Excellence Committee.